Before long a new and sub-stantial structure will replace the crazy old thing that has so long been the sub-ject of local notices and city legisla-tion.

LOCK JAW .- Harry Shaffer, fireman on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, had one of his feet badly crushed a few days since near Burton, while attempt ing to get on an engine moving slowly. In some way his foot missed the step and fell on the track immediately in front of the tender truck, which passes over it. Mr Shaffer was brought to this clty for treatment. We were joid yes-terday that it was thought he could not long survive as lock jaw had resulted some three days ago, and it was impos-sible to give bim any nourishment.

began to snow, and by daylight the ground was covered to the depth of an inch or two. When the wagons, drays, &c., began to move about, the snow soon disappeared in the heavy coating of dust in the streets, and by noon the mixture was complete. About three in the afternoon, equal parts of snov and rain began to fall, and at dark the sidewalks and streets were in a sloppy condition. If there was any sleighing done to town yesterday we did not see it, although we were on the lookout for items of that kind.

TERRIFIC EXPLOSION OF AN ENGINE ROAD AT GLOVER'S GAP-Two Men Instantly Killed-One of them Blown Distance of Four Hundred Yards. esterday morning, about one o'clock engine No. 195, of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, exploded her boiler at Glover's Gap, some 40 or 50 miles out of the city. Mr. Hobbs, the engineer, was originally from Sykesville, Md., and had been in the company's employ for sometime. Two or three months since he was married to a lady in this city, and resided in Centre Wheeling. The conductor, Mr. Delany, was also or resident in the same locality, and leaves a wife and two children. Both are represented to have been soler prudent and industrious men, and their death is deeply regretted by all their fellow employees.

death is deeply regretted by thi then-fellow employees.

The immediate cause of this fearful explosion will never be known. No one was near at the time it happened, nor had been for several hours previous to its occurrence. The engine was in splendid condition, having been thor-oughly repaired only some three weeks since. The report of the Committee on Accounts, receipmend leaves.

The trial of Richard Bavis, for distribing religious worship, was to have come up yesterday, but was continued until the 18th inst.

The criminal docket have now been called for the first time. Quite a number of cases have been disposed of with the results as published in our paper from daylo day. Several causes, however, have been continued until the latter days of the terro, and will be tried as they are reached. The civil docket will be commenced to-day.

The court will convene this morning at 9 o'clock.

The application of the sureties of The report of the Committee on Accounts, recommending the payment of sundry bills amounting to $725 18, was received and adopted.

The report of the Street Commissioner of his operations during the month of November, and presenting bills to the amount of $335 50, was, on motion of Mr. Ecff, received and the appropriation asked for granted.

The court will convene this morning at 9 o'clock atton of the sureties of Townsend Adams and Jacob Watson, Jr., for a reduction of their bonds, was argued by General Wheat and Governor Stanton, on Monday. In connection with the arguments, a petition numerously signed by prominent citizens of the city, and thriteen of the Grand Jury that found the indictments, was presented to the court. After a thorough investigation of the case, the court ordered the penalty of three thousand dollars in each instance to be reduced to fifteen hundred. We learn that all such forfeitures go to the School Fund of the State.

The report of the Superintendent of Water Works for the monit of November, and saking the payment of bills amounting to 806 18; recommending the reduction of the water rest of several persons, and that the applications of others be rejected, was read and adopted. (We will give the names of the parties in the proceedings of the Firas Branch to-morrow.)

The report of the Committee on Streets and Alleys in reference to improving Mill Alley; of opening Centre street to Fulton; considering it inexpedient to cover the gutter at the southend of the 2d Ward Market house, which had been adopted at a former meeting and sent to First Branch and there amended and sent back for concurrence, on incition of Mr. Hamilton the action of the First Branch was concurred in. crease in business transacted in the police court. Two cases were disposed of yesterday, which shows an advance the action of the First Branch was con-curred in.

The report of the Committee on Ap-peals, recommending the correction of assessments of various parties, was amended on motion of Mr. Hughes by striking out the name of A. C. Parr-ridge, and assemended was adopted. The report of J. M. The first case was that of Bridget Donley, who had been, (or was charged with.) behaving naughtily. But the city failed to make out its case. Biddy was loo sharp to be caught, and was released with the pleasing consciousness of having outwitted a considerable sized city fail of shrewd men. She was, however, required to pay the costs. James Wallace got on a little spree, just for the fan of the thing, but his merriment grew rather bolsterous, and an officer put him where his hilarity wouldn't disturb so many people. We infer that Wallace is young in the business, as Judge Good renarked that it was his first appearance before him. If he had been engaged in the getting drauk line any length of time, some one of our vigilant policemen would have nabbed him long since. As a sort of admonition to him he was asked to disgorge to the amount of five dollars, which it was subsequently an asked to disgorge to the amount of five dollars, which it was subsequently an activities of the was sent up to occupy the fail at night, and the geological school on the bill side by day, for the term of one month. MEAN,-Some fellows who had not secured their supply of pork for winter, and who either didn't have the money to purchase it with, or were not inclined to spend it for that purpose. inclined to spend it for that purpose, went to a pig pen in North Wheeling a few nights ago, and carried away two fine porkers. Just now we can't think of any meaner class of stealing, except that of robbing clothes lines and hen roosts. A must that would steal a pig is no better animal than the one he takes, and only lacks a little arrangement or two to make his correspondence complete.
